Welcome to The Ozona Pig,
located in the heart of historic Ozona,
one of the oldest communities in Pinellas County.

Did you Know?

Both Ozona and Palm Harbor were originally settled by J.C. Craver in 1877. A post office commission was granted under the name of Bay St. Joseph in 1878, this being the earliest record of either community. The name was soon changed to Yellow Bluff. Yellow Buff then became Ozona, meaning "pure air".

Did you Know?

Sutherland (Palm Harbor) boasted two beautiful hotels, the larger becoming Southern College in 1902. It sat high on the bluff overlooking Sutherland Bayou and the Gulf of Mexico. Wooden sidewalks led to "Pig Island" for picnics and "surf bathing".

A Family Tradition,

our "Southern Style BBQ" is influenced by Memphis roots and the original "Bobby's Bar-B-Que" located in Fort Myers, Florida. We hope you enjoy our hickory smoked slow cooked BBQ, Ribs, Chicken and other "family" favorites.

The Ozona Pig is everything we love,
good friends, good food and good conversation.

Our food is homemade.

We strive to serve food fast, not fast food!

Some items may take a bit a longer.

Sit back and enjoy!

Thank you for sharing your dining experience with us. Next time bring a friend and we'll...
...Meet ya at "The Pig"
